* Could not offer this course as the number of students were less than 60.

The members expressed their appreciation for the College's initiative in introducing relevant short-term courses for the students. Mr. Nitin Arya, a member of the alumni, raised concerns about the low enrolment numbers for the Research Methodology course, emphasizing its importance. Dr. Fulmali shared the perspective that the College should continue offering the course, even with enrolments less than 60. Both Mr. Arya and Dr. Fulmali believed that this course could serve as a stepping stone for the potential introduction of a course on Data Science.

The In-charge Principal expressed gratitude to Mr. Arya and Dr. Fulmali for their valuable insights. He outlined the College's efforts to promote all courses, including Research Methodology, through orientation programs for students. Additionally, he highlighted that, in accordance with the NEP-2020 framework, research methodology has been made a compulsory component.

The IQAC coordinator shared the feedback report received from students who were part of Batch 1 with the members (See Annexure I). Dr. Fulmali welcomed and praised the College for actively seeking and obtaining feedback from the students.

Agenda 2:	To interact with student representatives
------------------	---

Ms. Giselle Dsouza of B.Com Programme and Mr. Nyle Dmello of BBA Logistic Programme shared their inputs.

Areas of appreciation:

- Reflecting on challenges encountered during previous fest proved instrumental in the successful organisation of recent intra-departmental fests.
- Successful placements of apprenticeships for third-year learners of the BBA Programme.
- A learners working area being developed by the College.
- Events organised by DLLE successfully created a platform for learners to showcase their talents.

Suggestions:

- Improvement is needed in the Canteen facilities provided, including hygiene aspects.
- Fans and regulators not working in classrooms need to be attended to.

The members took note of these inputs and assured the learners that improvement of canteen services would be looked into once the construction work is completed.
